Howard County Police Chief G. Wayne Livesay to be Sworn-In as President of the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association

Howard County Police Chief G. Wayne Livesay will be sworn-in Monday as the 42nd president of the Maryland Chiefs of Police Association (MCPA). The event will take place during the MCPA's annual conference in Ocean City, Md., Sept. 8-12.

Livesay became a member of the MCPA in 1996 when he was Deputy Chief of Police. He has served as the organization's legislative coordinator since 1998.

The MCPA represents and conducts training for more than 100 Maryland law enforcement agencies, disseminates information to law enforcement officials statewide and endorses appropriate state legislation. The group is comprised of executive-level law enforcement officers from state, local and federal agencies, prosecutors, police legal advisors, members of the Maryland Police Training Commission, private sector security directors and interested citizens.
